Jane Franklin Dance
3700 South Four Mile Run Drive
Arlington, VA 22206

Dear Jane,

Thank you very much for the great dance program you and your performers gave at the Chinn Park Regional Library on Sunday, January 25, 2009. The dance routines were full of energy and power. All of the dancers did a fabulous job of displaying their physical talents to the audience. The lifts and turns were smooth, and the way the dancers threw themselves into the tumbles was startling. For awhile I was holding my breath, praying no one would get hurt.

The dancers initial entrance to Walking to New Orleans was a warm and welcoming way to begin the program. The patrons really enjoyed the opportunity to take part in the some of the dance routines. I think there were more patrons dancing to Jump, Jive and Wail then there were professional dancers. I really enjoyed the routine in Take the A Train. This was a fun and exciting piece. The dancer's long lackadaisical and tumbling movements to Langston Hughes' words in Weary Blues really reflected the tiredness and desperation African Americans may have felt during the '20s and '30s.

Thank you again for this wonderful program. I hope we can work together again.

Sincerely,

Joann Hartzell
