

Dance Class with Jane Franklin Dance!

"The art of dance uses movement to communicate meaning about the human experience. It is a powerful medium to express our values, our thought about the lives we live and the world in which we live."

– National Dance Education Organization

Express yourself and find your passion in the performing arts with Jane Franklin Dance. Students actively engage in movement that gives a "team" experience to the creative learner. Experienced dance educators incorporate movement exercises to increase body awareness, flexibility, coordination and strength. Students explore dance elements to encourage self-exploration and critical thinking.

"The Big Meow" Full-Day Camp

This full day camp is inspired by the story of an ever-hopeful orange fluffball who desperately wants to belong to the band of neighborhood cats, but is ostracized for a "loud as a lion's roar" meow. This book will come to life through movement, creative problem solving and physical story-telling. You'll stretch your muscles, create and share a cat-like vocabulary of movement, explore visual arts, reading and performance preparation. By the end of the week, you'll be on stage and be a star. Staff to participant ratio: 1:7.

July 15-19 and July 22-26
9am-3pm
Early care: 8-9am
Late care: 3-6pm

"Penelope's Pesky Pen" Half-Day Camp

This half day camp is inspired by a story about a pen with a mind of its own. Follow Penny, Aunt Pearl, and young Penelope on a silly and enlightening adventure. Who knows what to do with a pen that has a will of its own? Not Aunt Pearl, Not Priscilla. But young Penelope has an idea. This engaging dance camp will spark imagination with classes that explore basic dance concepts, visual arts and poetry. Students create a role that is performed by the end of the week. Staff to participant ratio: 1:7. Ages 5 -7.

Aug 5 – 9 and Aug 12 - 16
9am-12 noon
Early care: 8-9am

Early registration is 10% off for both camps before April 15, 2013.
