BOX OFFICE ALERT

Discover the personal histories of migration and immigration through layers of sound and movement with the discipline-crossing company Jane Franklin Dance. The Migration Project explores human flight through stories of relocation. Whether it is a tale from Prohibition or a recent Green Card story, The Migration Project considers the shared desire to achieve the American Dream.

Come directly from work, grab a complimentary drink at the Forum bar and transition into the evening with a unique mix of performances.

Happenings Happy Hours bring local artists into conversation with the plays on STC's stages. Over the course of the season, enjoy a range of performances that tie in with the characters, authors and themes of the current production.

Happy Hours end with enough time to eat dinner and return to see that evening's show at STC.

FREE, however reservations are required. Reserve your spot today!
